Totally understand and thanks for the quick response. Conference sponsors would really appreciate having him there, so if anything does change, please let us know.

I appreciate this. We received the invitation on this but the scheduling for Pruitt doesn't work out on this event. Let me check further with our advance and scheduling staff to see if anything has changed.

Ryan –

Hope you're well. Know it's been a while, but after connecting with Catz, he recommended that I reach out to you about having Pruitt speak at Shale Insight (President Trump spoke at the conference last year) next month in Pittsburgh. More here: <http://shaleinsight.com/>

I understand the MSC has reached out to your scheduling folks (see attached), but has not received word on Pruitt's potential availability. We can absolutely be helpful in filling up a day or two with field events as well.

Thanks for giving this a look. Hope it works out and that you make the trip too.

-Travis
